

Protocol for Clergy and Laity Making Presentations for the Mission Cooperative Program in the Archdiocese of Toronto

Those clergy, religious, and laity who are assigned to present for the Mission Cooperative Program in the Archdiocese of Toronto must follow the protocol of the Archdiocese when seeking permission to make a presentation on behalf of their Diocese, Religious Order, or Organization.

Please refer to the guidelines below and follow the instructions applicable to your Mission Speaker:

Speaker is the Diocesan Bishop - the following documentation is required to be sent to the Archdiocese of Toronto, Attn: Mission Cooperative Program, prior to their arrival in Toronto:

- A letter from the Arch/Bishop confirming his acceptance to participate in the Mission Cooperative Program and that he will be making the appeal on behalf of his Diocese, indicating the names of the assigned parishes, and the duration of stay and the place of residence while visiting for non-Toronto residents.

Upon receipt of this documentation, the Office of Spiritual Affairs will issue the appropriate letter, with a copy to the assigned parishes.

Speaker is the Superior of a Religious Order - the following documentation is required to be sent to the Archdiocese of Toronto, Attn: Mission Cooperative Program, prior to their arrival in Toronto:

- A letter from the Superior confirming his acceptance to participate in the Mission Cooperative Program and that he will be making the appeal on behalf of his Religious Order, indicating the names of the assigned parishes, and the duration of stay and the place of residence while visiting for non-Toronto residents.
- A letter of good standing, issued in the calendar year from the General Superior of the Order indicating the individual:
  - has valid faculties (if clergy)
  - is not under any ecclesial censure
  - does not have a criminal record and has not had criminal charges brought against them.

Upon receipt of this documentation, the Office of Spiritual Affairs will issue temporary faculties to the respective clergy and/or a letter of approval for the speaker to their Diocese / Religious Order, with a copy to the assigned parishes.

Speaker is a Clergy or Religious - the following documentation is required to be sent to the Archdiocese of Toronto, Attn: Mission Cooperative Program, prior to the speaker arriving in Toronto:

- A letter from the Arch/Bishop or General Superior confirming acceptance to participate in the Mission Cooperative Program and authorizing the speaker to make the appeal on behalf of the Diocese, Religious Order or Lay Organization. Names of the assigned parishes should be indicated, as well as the duration of stay and the place of residence while visiting for non-Toronto residents.
- A letter of good standing, issued in the calendar year from the local Bishop or Religious Superior of the Order indicating the individual:
  - has valid faculties (if clergy)
  - is not under any ecclesial censure
  - does not have a criminal record and has not had criminal charges brought against them.

Note: *If the speaker is local from the Archdiocese of Toronto and has active ministry and valid faculties in Toronto, the letter of good standing may be waived. The designation letter to speak on behalf of the Diocese, Religious Order or Lay Organization is still required.

Upon receipt of this documentation, the Office of Spiritual Affairs will issue temporary faculties to the respective clergy or a letter of approval for non-clergy, and send it to their Diocese or Religious Order, with a copy sent to the assigned parishes.

Speaker is a member of the Secular Laity (i.e. non-religious) - the following documentation is required to be sent to the Archdiocese of Toronto, Attn: Mission Cooperative Program, prior to the speaker arriving in Toronto:

- A letter from the Arch/Bishop or General Superior or Lay Director confirming acceptance to participate in the Mission Cooperative Program and authorizing the speaker to make the appeal on behalf of the Diocese, Religious Order or Lay Organization. Names of the assigned parishes should be indicated, as well as the duration of stay and the place of residence while visiting for non-Toronto residents.
- A letter of good standing, issued in the calendar year from the local Bishop or Religious Superior or Pastor of the Parish indicating that the individual:
  - is in good standing
  - is not under ecclesial censure
  - does not have a criminal record, and has not had criminal charges brought against them,
  - presents his/her material in conformity to the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Upon receipt of this documentation, the Office of Spiritual Affairs will issue a letter of approval for the speaker and send it to their respective Local Ordinary, with a copy to the assigned parishes.
